Example 1 consists of three staves of music in 3/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody starts with a quarter rest, followed by a quarter note F#, then eighth notes G and A, and continues with a series of quarter and eighth notes. The second staff continues the melody with similar rhythmic patterns. The third staff concludes the piece with a key signature change to two flats (Bb) and a final cadence.

Example 3 consists of four staves of music in 3/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of three sharps (F#). The melody is characterized by a steady eighth-note pattern. The second and third staves continue this rhythmic motif with slight variations in pitch and phrasing. The fourth staff concludes the piece with a final cadence.
